FAITHFUL TO THE WORD, ONE WITH THE PEOPLE

Merciful Father,
 you offer us the gift of your Word, an expression of your love reaching out to us. We want to remain open and faithful to the Word that flows from within you, so that it soaks into our hearts, is reflected in our lives and we turn ourselves to others in selfless service.

We listen to hear your Son, Word made flesh, who overcomes the darkness of despair and heals the wounds of injustice. Bound to the Word, with our whole mind and our whole heart, we let Him take the initiative in our life and guide us in our path. We want to be faithful disciples of the Word, that questions and challenges us, helps us to discern and moves us to conversion.

We also want to hear the life of the people we serve and the events of our time to offer mercy and solidarity. We look primarily to the poor, oppressed and disconsolate, putting the last one first to restore dignity, to liberate and reconcile, and to promote the integrity of creation.

Driven by the Spirit of Love we are sent to all peoples and nations. The Word announced and expressed in different languages and cultures, encourages us to promote inculturation and to live interculturality.

We want to discern and dialogue, witness and transform, united to the people and in collaboration with everyone.

Mother of the Divine Word, model of attentive listening and generous response, Help us to communicate with joy and strength the Word that nourishes our fidelity and commitment to be united with others in the mission.
